

Connecticut Commission
on Culture & Tourism

CONNECTICUT : ON FILM

Picture Yourself a Part of It!

Governor M. Jodi Rell recently signed into law the Digital Media & Motion Picture Tax Credit. This tax credit program— the most generous tax credit in the country— creates a film-friendly, no-nonsense economical approach to production. The result is more production companies coming to Connecticut to film commercials and major motion pictures.....and they need your services.

Who Should Come.

Owners/representatives of hotels, restaurants, wholesale nurseries, and equipment rentals. Caterers, property owners, real estate brokers, accountants, lawyers, economic development agents and town/city/municipal representatives.

What to do.

Attend a public informational session to learn about the new Digital Media & Motion Picture tax credit legislation, how tax credits = more jobs and increased business, and how to become a film-friendly business in a film-friendly town, city, or municipality.

When and Where.

- Thursday, September 14, at 8:30 a.m.
Seaverns Room, The Bushnell, 166 Capitol Avenue, Hartford
- Tuesday, September 19, at 8:30 a.m.
Lockwood-Mathews Mansion, 295 West Avenue, Norwalk

To reserve a seat, please contact Rhonda Olisky at 860-256-2752 or via email at Rhonda.olisky@ct.gov.

For more information on Connecticut's Digital Media & Motion Picture Tax Credit, go to www.ctfilm.com